

Red Oak

Quercus rubra

Soil: Can handle most soil types

Light: Full sun (optimal)

Height: 60-75 ft

Wildlife: Attracts butterflies and birds

*Is a host plant to the Gray Hairstreak Butterfly

Info Source:

<https://www.jerseyyards.org/plant/quercus-rubra/>

Photo Source:

<https://www.butterfliesandmoths.org>

Pin Oak

Quercus palustris

Soil: Can handle most soil types

Light: Full sun

Height: 60-75 ft

Wildlife: Attracts butterflies and birds

*Is a host plant to the Gray Hairstreak Butterfly

Info Source:

<https://www.jerseyyards.org/plant/quercus-palustris/>

Photo Source:

<https://www.butterfliesandmoths.org>

Arrowwood Viburnum

Viburnum dentatum

Soil: Sandy, loam, dry or moist

Light: Partial Sun

Height: 6-15 ft

Wildlife: Attracts butterflies and birds

*Is a host plant to the Spring
Azure

Info Source:

<https://www.jerseyyards.org/plant/viburnum-dentatum/>

Photo Source:

iNaturalist